CHAPTER 2.

An Act respecting the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887.

[Assented to 23rd April, 1887.]

WHEREAS it has been found expedient to revise, classify, Preamble.
and consolidate the Public General Statutes, which apply to the Province of Ontario and are within the legislative authority of the Legislature of Ontario; and whereas such revision, classification, and consolidation, have been made accordingly; and whereas it is expedient to provide for the incorporation therewith of the Public General Statutes, passed during the present session, and for giving the force of law to the body of revised statutes to result from such incorporation:

Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. The printed roll, attested as that of the said statutes revised, classified, and consolidated as aforesaid, under the signature of His Honour the Lieutenant Governor, and that of the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly, and deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly, shall be held to be the original thereof, and to embody the several Acts and parts of Acts mentioned as to be repealed in the schedule A thereto annexed; but the marginal notes thereon, and the headings in the body of the Act, and the references to former enactments at the foot of the several sections thereof, and the sections printed in bourgeois type form no part of the said statutes, and shall be held to have been inserted for convenience of reference only, and may be omitted or corrected, and any misprint or error, whether of commission or omission, or any contradiction or ambiguity in the said roll may also be corrected.

Original Roll of Statutes
revised, etc.,
to be certified and deposited.

As to marginal notes, misprints, etc

but without changing the legal effect, and such alterations in the language of said statutes as are requisite, in order to preserve a uniform mode of expression, and do not alter the legal effect may be made, and any of the enacting clauses in said statutes may be printed in bourgeois type, and any of the sections in bourgeois type may be printed among the enacting clauses where proper—in the roll hereinafter mentioned.

2. The Lieutenant Governor may select such Acts and parts of Acts, passed during the present Session, as he may deem it advisable to incorporate with the said statutes contained in the said first mentioned roll, and may cause them to be so incorporated therewith, adapting their form and language to those of the said statutes (but without changing their effect), inserting them in their proper places in the said statutes, striking out of the latter any enactments repealed by or inconsistent with those so incorporated, altering the numbering of the chapters and sections if need be, and adding to the said Schedule A a list of the Acts and parts of Acts of the present Session so incorporated as aforesaid.

Lieutenant-Governor may cause the legislation of the present session to be incorporated in the said Roll.

3. So soon as the said incorporation of such Acts, and parts of Acts, with the said statutes, and the said addition to the said Schedule A has been completed, the Lieutenant Governor may cause a correct printed roll thereof, attested under his signature and countersigned by the Provincial Secretary, to be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly, which roll shall be held to be the original thereof, and to embody the several Acts, and parts of Acts, mentioned as repealed in the amended Schedule A thereto annexed; any marginal notes, however, and headings in the body of the Act and references to former enactments, and sections printed in bourgeois type which may appear thereon, being held to form no part of the said statutes, but to be inserted for convenience of reference only.

Certified Roll including the legislation of the present session to be deposited and serve as the original thereof.

4. The Lieutenant Governor in Council, after such deposit of the said last mentioned roll, may by proclamation declare the day on, from and after which the same shall come into force and have effect as law, by the designation of "The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1887."

Proclamation for bringing the Revised Statutes into force.

5. On, from and after such day, the same shall accordingly come into force and effect as and by the designation of "The Revised Statutes of Ontario," to all intents as though the same were expressly embodied in and enacted by this Act, to come into force and have effect on, from and after such day; and on from and after the same day, all the enactments in the several Acts and parts of Acts in such amended Schedule A mentioned, so far as they relate to this Province, shall stand and be repealed to the extent mentioned in the third column of said Schedule A save only as hereinafter is provided.

On and after day named in Proclamation Statutes to be in force and the enactments embodied in them repealed.

Exception.

Repeal not to extend to Acts over which the Dominion Parliament has jurisdiction.

6. Such repeal shall not be construed as intended to extend to such of the provisions of said Acts and parts of Acts as relate to subjects in regard to which the Parliament of Canada has exclusive powers of legislation ; but the said Acts and parts of Acts (in so far only as is necessary to give effect to every such provision) shall remain in full force and effect, subject however, to section 9 of this Act.

Saving as to transactions, etc., anterior to the repeal.

7. The repeal of the said Acts and parts of Acts shall not revive any Act or provision of law repealed by them ; nor shall the said repeal prevent the effect of any saving clause in the said Acts and parts of Acts or the application of any of the said Acts or parts of Acts or of any Act or provision of law formerly in force, to any transaction, matter or thing anterior to the said repeal, to which they would otherwise apply.

Certain matters anterior to the repeal not to be affected by it. Penalties, etc.

8.—(1) The repeal of the said Acts and parts of Acts shall not affect—

(a.) Any penalty, forfeiture or liability incurred before the time of such repeal, or any proceedings for enforcing the same, had, done, completed or pending at the time of such repeal,—

Actions, etc.

(b.) Nor any action, suit, judgment, decree, certificate, execution, process, order, rule, or any proceeding, matter or thing whatever respecting the same, had, done, made, entered, granted, completed, pending, existing, or in force at the time of such repeal,—

(c.) Nor any act, deed, right, title, interest, grant, assurance, descent, will, registry, by-law, rule, regulation, contract, lien, charge, matter or thing, had, done, made, acquired, established or existing at the time of such repeal,—

Offices, etc.

(d.) Nor any office, appointment, commission, salary, allowance, security, duty, or any matter or thing appertaining thereto, at the time of such repeal,—

Marriages, etc.

(e.) Nor any marriage, certificate or registry thereof, lawfully had, made, granted or existing before or at the time of such repeal,—

And other matters, etc.

(f.) Nor shall such repeal defeat, disturb, invalidate or prejudicially affect any other matter or thing whatsoever, had, done, completed, existing or pending at the time of such repeal ;

But the same shall remain valid, etc.,

(2) But every such

Penalty, forfeiture and liability, and every such Action, suit, judgment, decree, certificate, execution, prosecution, order, rule, proceeding, matter or thing, and every such

Act, deed, right, title, interest, grant, assurance, descent, will, registry, by-law, rule, regulation, contract, lien, charge, matter or thing, and every such Office, appointment, commission, salary, allowance, security, and duty, and every such

Marriage, certificate and registry thereof, and every such other matter and thing, and the force and effect thereof, respectively, may and shall, remain and continue as if no such repeal had taken place, and so far as necessary, may and shall be continued, prosecuted, enforced and proceeded with under the said Revised Statutes and other the statutes and laws having force in this Province, so far as applicable thereto, and subject to the provisions of the said several statutes and laws.

9.—(1) The said Revised Statutes shall not be held to operate as new laws, but shall be construed and have effect as a consolidation of the law as contained in the said Acts and parts of Acts so repealed, and for which the said Revised Statutes are substituted, and the Legislature is not to be deemed to have adopted the construction which may by judicial decision, or otherwise, have been placed upon the language of any of the statutes included amongst the said Revised Statutes.

(2) The various provisions in the Revised Statutes corresponding to and substituted for the provisions of the Acts and parts of Acts so repealed, shall, where they are the same in effect as those of the Acts and parts of Acts so repealed, be held to operate retrospectively as well as prospectively, and to have been passed upon the days respectively upon which the Acts and parts of Acts so repealed came into effect.

(3) If upon any point the provisions of the said Revised Statutes are not in effect the same as those of the repealed Acts and parts of Acts for which they are substituted, then as respects all transactions, matters and things, subsequent to the time when the said Revised Statutes take effect, the provisions contained in them shall prevail, but as respects all transactions, matters and things anterior to the said time, the provisions of the said repealed Acts and parts of Acts shall prevail.

10. Any reference in any former Act remaining in force, or in any instrument or document, to any Act or enactment so repealed, shall, after the Revised Statutes take effect, be held, as regards any subsequent transaction, matter or thing, to be a reference to the enactments in the Revised Statutes having the same effect as such repealed Act or enactment.

As to effect of insertion of an Act in schedule A.

11. The insertion of any Act in the said schedule A shall not be construed as a declaration that such Act or any part of it was or was not in force immediately before the coming into force of the said Revised Statutes.

CHAPTER 3.

An Act respecting the Boundary between the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it was, by Royal Proclamation, dated the 18th day of June, in the year 1791, declared that the then Province of Quebec should be divided into two distinct Provinces, to be called the Province of Upper Canada and the Province of Lower Canada, by separating the said two Provinces according to the following Line of Division, viz.—Commencing at a stone boundary on the North Bank of the Lake St. Francis at the cove west of Pointe au Baudet, in the limit between the Township of Lancaster and the Seigniorie of New Longueuil, running along the said limit in the direction of north thirty-four degrees west to the westernmost angle of the said Seigniorie of New Longueuil, thence along the north-western boundary of the Seigniorie of Vaudeuil, running north twenty-five degrees east until it strikes the Ottawa River, to ascend the said river into the Lake Temiscamingue, and from the head of the said lake by a line drawn due north until it strikes the boundary line of Hudson's Bay, including all the territory to the westward and southward of the said line, to the utmost extent of the country commonly called or known by the name of Canada;

And whereas the point to be regarded as the head of Lake Temiscamingue had never been authoritatively determined, and in consequence that portion of the boundary line between the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, now respectively named the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, north of the said lake, had never been defined; and whereas it was considered expedient by the Governments of the said Provinces of Ontario and

Quebec, that the said undetermined portion of the said boundary line between the said Provinces should no longer continue uncertain, and it was, subject to ratification by the Legislatures of the said Provinces and by the Parliament of Canada, agreed between the Governments of the said Provinces that the point at the head of Lake Temiscamingue, from which the said boundary line shall run due north, should be determined in the following manner, that is to say :—

1. That a line should be surveyed running due east from a monument planted on the east bank of the River Blanche, the position of which monument is, upon a map shewing the proposed boundary, (a duplicate whereof, signed by the Honourable Richard William Scott, formerly Commissioner of Crown Lands of the Province of Ontario, and the Honourable Pierre Fortin, formerly Commissioner of Crown Lands of the Province of Quebec, is filed in the Department of Crown Lands of the Province of Ontario) shewn and marked with the letter H, and that the said due east line should be continued to the west bank of the River Quinze ;

2. That the said line so surveyed should be divided into two equal parts, and that at the point of bisection a permanent monument should be planted ;

3. That from the said point of bisection a line should be run due south through the mainland and through the island marked upon the said map as Island No. 2, until the said line intersects the southern boundary of the said island at the water's edge, and that the said point of intersection of the said line with the southerly boundary of the said Island No. 2, at the water's edge, should be the point at the head of Lake Temiscamingue from which the boundary line between the said Provinces of Ontario and Quebec should be run due north ;

And whereas the Governments of the said Provinces of Ontario and Quebec have caused the said lines to be surveyed, and the said point determined upon the ground, and have also caused to be made a survey from a point on the middle of the Ottawa River, opposite the mouth of the Mattawan River, up the waters of the Ottawa River, into Lake Temiscamingue, and through the said Lake to the said point determined in manner aforesaid at the head of Lake Temiscamingue, and thence due north as far as it is deemed necessary to survey at the present time the said line northerly ;

And whereas it is intended that a line indicating the boundary between the Provinces so ascertained as aforesaid, shall be marked and laid down upon a map made in duplicate, to be signed by the Commissioner of Crown Lands for the Province of Ontario and the Commissioner of Crown Lands for the Province of Quebec ;

And whereas by chapter 28 of the Acts of the Parliament Imp. Act. of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in 34-35 V. c. 28.

the Session held in the 34th and 35th years of Her Majesty's reign and intituled An Act respecting the establishment of Provinces in the Dominion of Canada, it is enacted that "the Parliament of Canada may, from time to time, with the consent of the Legislature of any Province of the said Dominion, increase, diminish, or otherwise alter the limits of such Province, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed to by the said Legislature, and may, with the like consent, make provision respecting the effect and operation of any such increase or diminution, or alteration of territory in relation to any Province affected thereby;"

And whereas it is expedient that the said line so surveyed and laid down should be established as the boundary line between this Province and the Province of Quebec;

Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Parliament of the Dominion of Canada, may establish the line between Ontario and Quebec.

1. In case the Legislature of the Province of Quebec also consents thereto, the Legislature of the Province of Ontario hereby consents that the Parliament of the Dominion of Canada do declare and establish the line to be marked and laid down in manner aforesaid, and the continuation of the said line due north to the northerly limit of the said Provinces, as the boundary line between this Province and the Province of Quebec, whether the same increases, diminishes or otherwise alters the limits of this Province.* R. S. O. 1877, c. 3, s. 1.

CHAPTER 4.

An Act respecting the Northerly and Westerly boundaries of Ontario.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Northerly and Westerly boundaries of the Province of Ontario were not determined until lately;

And whereas pending the determination thereof certain provisional lines, which for certain purposes were to be regarded as such boundary lines, were agreed to by the Governments of the Dominion and the Province;

And whereas it was agreed by the Governments of the Dominion of Canada and the Province of Ontario that the true boundaries should be determined by reference to arbitration;

And whereas one of the arbitrators named in the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1877, chapter 4, died, and the other resigned without having made any award;

*The consent of the Legislature of Quebec was given by the Act of that Province, 38 V. c. 6, but no Act has yet been passed by the Parliament of Canada to establish the boundary line above referred to.

And whereas the Governor-General of Canada in Council afterwards named as arbitrator the Honourable Sir Francis Hincks, of the city of Montreal, Knight, and the Lieutenant-Governor in Council of this Province named as arbitrator the Honourable Robert Alexander Harrison, Chief Justice of Ontario;

And whereas the two Governments further agreed that the Right Honourable Sir Edward Thornton, Knight, should be the third arbitrator, and that the determination of the award of the said arbitrators, or a majority of them, in the matter of the said boundaries should be taken as final and conclusive;

And whereas on the third day of August, in the year of our Lord 1878, the said arbitrators made their award in writing, in the words following:—"The undersigned having been appointed by the Governments of Canada and Ontario as Arbitrators to determine the Northerly and Westerly Boundaries of Ontario, do hereby determine and decide that the following are and shall be such boundaries, that is to say:—Commencing at a point on the southern shore of Hudson's Bay, commonly called James Bay, where a line produced due north from the head of Lake Temiscamingue would strike the said south shore, thence along the said south shore westerly to the mouth of the Albany River, thence up the middle of the said Albany River and of the lakes thereon, to the source of the said river at the head of Lake St. Joseph; thence by the nearest line to the easterly end of Lac Seul, being the head waters of the English River; thence westerly through the middle of Lac Seul, and the said English River to a point where the same will be intersected by a true meridional line drawn northerly from the international monument placed to mark the most north-westerly angle of the Lake of the Woods by the recent Boundary Commission, and thence due south, following the said meridional line to the said international monument; thence southerly and easterly following upon the international boundary line between the British possessions and the United States of America into Lake Superior. But if a true meridional line, drawn northerly from the said international boundary at the said most north-westerly angle of the Lake of the Woods, shall be found to pass to the west of where the English River empties into the Winnipeg River, then, and in such case the northerly boundary of Ontario shall continue down the middle of the said English River to where the same empties into the Winnipeg River, and shall continue thence on a line drawn due west from the confluence of the said English River with the said Winnipeg River, until the same will intersect the meridian above described, and thence due south, following the said meridional line to the said international monument, thence southerly and easterly, following upon the international boundary line between the British possessions and the United States of America into Lake Superior;"

And whereas the effect of the said award is to give to this Province less territory than had been claimed on behalf of the Province, and more territory than the Government of Canada had contended to be within the limits of the Province, or than was contained within the provisional boundary lines aforesaid ;

Imp. Act,
34-35 V. c. 28.

And whereas, by chapter 28 of the Acts of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the Session held in the 34th and 35th years of Her Majesty's reign, and intituled An Act respecting the establishment of Provinces in the Dominion of Canada, it is enacted that the Parliament of Canada may, from time to time, with the consent of the Legislature of any Province in the Dominion, increase, diminish, or otherwise alter the limits of such Province, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed to by the said Legislature, and may, with the like consent, make provision respecting the effect and operation of any such increase, or diminution, or alteration of territory in relation to any Province affected thereby ;

And whereas it is proper that the boundaries determined by the said award be adopted and confirmed ;

Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Parliament of Canada may declare Northerly and Westerly boundaries of Ontario

1. The Legislature of the Province of Ontario consents that the Parliament of Canada may declare that the boundaries which, by the award of the arbitrators aforesaid were decided to be the northerly and westerly boundaries, respectively, of this Province, shall be and are the northerly and westerly boundaries thereof, whether the same increase, diminish, or otherwise alter the true northerly and westerly limits of the Province.* 42 V. c. 2, s. 1.

*The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, on a special case referred to them respecting the western boundary of the Province of Ontario, reported on the 22nd July, 1884, to Her Majesty as follows :—

"That upon the evidence, their Lordships find the true boundary between the western part of the Province of Ontario and the south-eastern part of the Province of Manitoba to be so much of a line drawn to the Lake of the Woods through the waters eastward of that lake and west of Long Lake, which divide British North America from the territory of the United States, and thence through the Lake of the Woods to the most north-western point of that lake as runs northward from the United States boundary, and from the most north-western point of the Lake of the Woods, a line drawn due north until it strikes the middle line of the course of the river discharging the waters of the lake called Lake Seul or the Lonely Lake, whether above or below its confluence with the stream flowing from the Lake of the Woods towards Lake Winnipeg ; and their Lordships find the true boundary between the same two provinces to the north of Ontario and to the south of Manitoba, proceeding eastward from the point at which the before mentioned line strikes the middle line of the course of the river last aforesaid, to be along the middle line of the course of the same river (whether called by the name of the English River, or as to the part below the confluence, by the name of the River Winnipeg), up to Lake Seul, or the Lonely Lake, and thence along the middle line of Lake Seul or the Lonely Lake to the head of that lake, and thence by a straight line to the nearest point of the middle line of the waters of Lake St. Joseph, and thence along the middle line until it reaches the foot or outlet of that lake, and thence along the middle line of the river by which the waters of Lake St. Joseph discharge themselves, until it reaches a line drawn due north from the confluence of the rivers Mississippi and Ohio, which forms the boundary eastward of the Province of Manitoba."

This report was approved by order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the 11th day of August, 1884.

Entry on roll of landholders' sons and wage-earners.

(7) But the name of a wage-earner shall not be entered in the assessment roll as a wage-earner, unless to the assessor or one of the assessors, if there is more than one, there has been first delivered by or on behalf of the wage-earner, the written affirmation made and signed by him as provided in that behalf by The Assessment Act. 48 V. c. 42, s. 5, (2.)

On appeals
Judge to correct list as evidence may warrant.

12. If on a complaint or appeal to strike out of the list the name of a person entered therein as a voter, the Judge, from the evidence produced and given before him, is of opinion that the person is entitled to be entered on the list in any character, or because of property or qualification other than that in which he is so already entered in the list, the Judge shall not strike the name of the person from the list, but shall make such corrections in the list as the evidence in his opinion warrants with respect to the right, character and qualification of the person to vote. 42 V. c. 3, s. 3.

13.—(1) A voter or person entitled to be a voter making a complaint of any error or omission in the list shall, within thirty days after the clerk of the municipality has posted up the list in his office, give to the clerk or leave for him at his residence or place of business, notice (Form 6) in writing of his complaint and intention to apply to the Judge in respect thereof;

SUBDIVISIONS FOR POLLING PLACES.

Cities, etc., to be divided into polling subdivisions.

8.—(1) Every city, town, ward, township or incorporated village, having more than two hundred qualified voters therein shall be divided by well defined boundaries, such as streets, side lines, concession lines or the like, in the most convenient manner into polling subdivisions by by-law of the municipal council having jurisdiction over the locality, and in such manner that the number of qualified electors in the several polling subdivisions shall be as nearly equal as may be, and shall not in any one exceed two hundred.

Polling subdivisions to be same as for municipal elections.

(2) Where a municipality is divided into polling subdivisions, the same polling subdivisions shall be used both for the election of members of the Legislative Assembly and for municipal elections; and the polling subdivisions for elections to the Legislative Assembly and municipal elections, shall hereafter be made the same in all cases, except that the municipal council of every city, town, or incorporated village, may by by-law unite, for the purposes of municipal elections, any two adjoining polling subdivisions. R. S. O. 1877, c. 10, s. 11.

Alteration of subdivisions.

(3) Any alteration of existing polling subdivisions, or creation of new polling subdivisions, shall be made before the publication of the voters' lists.

(4) For the purpose of enabling the council to make the required alterations, the clerk of the municipality, as soon as he finds that the number of qualified voters in a subdivision exceeds two hundred, shall call the attention of the council to the fact.

(5) In case, through oversight or from other cause, such alterations have not been made prior to the publication of the lists, the alteration in the polling subdivisions shall be made forthwith thereafter, but shall not take effect until the next voters' lists are being made out, and shall not affect the voting on or with respect to any previous voters' lists.

(6) It shall not be necessary for a Returning Officer to re-divide a polling subdivision, on account of the same containing more than two hundred voters, so long as it does not contain more than three hundred; but if it contains more than three hundred, he shall divide it into two subdivisions.

(7) Nothing in this section contained shall be held to relieve the council of a municipality from the duty of making a new division of the voters into polling subdivisions, or re-dividing a subdivision as often as the number of qualified voters in a polling subdivision exceeds two hundred. 46 V. c. 2, s. 2.

9. Whenever the number of qualified voters in a polling sub-division increases so as to exceed two hundred, or whenever the municipal council consider that the convenience of the electors would be promoted by a new and different subdivision, the city, town, ward, township or incorporated village, shall be again in like manner divided into polling subdivisions so as to conform to the intent and meaning of this Act, and so again, from time to time, as like occasion shall require. R. S. O. 1877, c. 10, s. 12.

1. For the purpose of reference and decision in regard to matters hereafter referred to it, a Treasury Board composed of three members of the Executive Council may be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor, and the three members so appointed shall be the Treasury Board for the time being. 49 V. c. 4, s. 1.

2. For the more complete examination of the Public Accounts of the Province, and for the reporting thereon to the Legislative Assembly, the Lieutenant-Governor may, under the great seal of the Province appoint an officer to be called the Provincial Auditor of the Province, and such officer may be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Province, a salary of $2,400 per annum. 49 V. c. 4, s. 2.

3. The Provincial Auditor shall hold office during good behaviour, but shall be removable for cause by the Lieutenant-Governor on address of the Legislative Assembly. 49 V. c. 4, s. 3.

4. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall, from time to time, appoint any officer, clerk or other person to be employed in the office of the Provincial Auditor subject to the provisions of any Act or Acts regulating the Civil Service of Ontario. 49 V. c. 4, s. 4.

Regulations for conducting business of office, how made.

5. The Provincial Auditor shall have power to make, from time to time, orders and rules for the conduct of the internal business of his office, and to promote, suspend or remove any officer, clerk or other person employed therein, and to prescribe regulations and forms for the guidance of principal and sub-accountants in making up and rendering their accounts for examination: Provided always, that all rules, regulations and forms shall be approved by the Treasury Board previously to the issue thereof. The rules and regulations shall be laid before the House of Assembly within the first ten days of the Session next after the date when the same have been approved by the Treasury Board. 49 V. c. 4, s. 5.

Cancelling debentures.

6. It shall be the duty of the Provincial Auditor and the Assistant Treasurer to examine and cancel debentures, or other Provincial securities representing any debt of the Province and which have been redeemed. 49 V. c. 4, s. 6.

Provincial Auditor to audit public accounts.

7. The Provincial Auditor shall examine, check, and audit all accounts of receipts and expenditure of public moneys, whether appertaining to the Province, or received or expended by the Province on account of or in trust for any other party or parties. 49 V. c. 4, s. 7.

Provincial Auditor to see that money is not expended without or in excess of appropriation.

8. The Provincial Auditor shall, subject to the exceptions hereafter provided for, see that no cheque issues for the payment of any public money, for which there is no direct legislative appropriation, or in excess of any portion of such appropriation the expenditure of which has been authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and he shall report to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council through the Treasurer any case in which a department or sub-accountant has expended money out of the proceeds of any accountable warrant for any purpose for which there is no sufficient authority, or beyond the amount for which there is such authority. 49 V. c. 4, s. 8.

When only cheques may issue without certificate of Provincial Auditor.

9. No cheque for public money shall issue except upon the certificate of the Provincial Auditor that there is legislative authority for the expenditure, save only in the following cases:—

1. If, upon an application for a cheque, the Provincial Auditor has reported that there is no legislative authority for issuing it, then upon the written opinion of the Attorney-General, or in his absence the Deputy-Attorney General, that there is such authority, citing it, the Treasurer may authorize the Assistant Treasurer to prepare the cheque, irrespective of the Provincial Auditor's report;

2. If, when the Legislature is not in session an accident happens to any public work or building which requires an immediate outlay for the repair thereof, or any other occasion arises when an expenditure not foreseen or provided for by the Legislature is urgently and immediately required for the public good, then upon the report of the Treasurer that there is no legislative provision, and of the Minister having charge of the service in question that the necessity is urgent, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may order a special warrant to be prepared, to be signed by the Lieutenant-Governor for the issue of the amount estimated to be required, which shall be placed by the Treasurer to a special account, against which cheques may issue from time to time in the usual form, as they may be required;

3. In the absence of the Treasurer, or in the case of vacancy in the office of Treasurer, the Provincial Auditor is authorized to make the report;

4. If the Provincial Auditor has refused to certify that a cheque of the Treasurer may issue, on the ground that the money is not justly due, or that it is in excess of the authority granted by Council, or for any reason other than that there is no legislative authority, then upon a report of the case prepared by the Provincial Auditor and the Treasurer, the Treasury Board shall be the judge of the sufficiency of the Provincial Auditor's objection, and may sustain him or order the issue of the cheque in their discretion;

5. The Provincial Auditor shall countersign all cheques issued by the Treasurer, but before so countersigning he shall satisfy himself that the cheques are authorized under some one or other of the provisions of this section;

6. The Provincial Auditor shall keep a cheque record-book with each bank upon which cheques are drawn, in which shall be entered all bank cheques countersigned by him, giving the date of issue, the name of the party to whose order payable and the amount; and the Auditor shall initial the entry of each cheque countersigned by him, after satisfying himself that the entry is correct. 49 V. c. 4, s. 9.

10. It shall be the duty of the Provincial Auditor in all such cases to prepare a statement of all such legal opinions, reports of Council, special warrants, and cheques issued without his certificate and of all expenditure incurred in consequence thereof, which statement he shall deliver to the Treasurer, to be by him presented to the Legislative Assembly at the same time as the Public Accounts are presented. 49 V. c. 4, s. 10.

supplied, as the case may be, and that the price charged is according to contract, or, if not covered by a contract, is fair and just. 49 V. c. 4, s. 11.

12. It shall be the duty of the Provincial Auditor to prepare and deliver to the Treasurer the Public Accounts to be annually laid before the Legislature. 49 V. c. 4, s. 12.

13. The Public Accounts shall include the period from the first day of January to the thirty-first day of December in each year, which period shall constitute the financial year; all estimates submitted to the Legislature shall be for the services coming in course of payment during the financial year; and any sums appropriated by the Legislature for the services of the year, which may be unexpended on the thirty-first day of December, shall not be expended thereafter, except in the payment of accounts and expenses incurred on or prior to that day; and all balances of appropriations which remain unexpended after the twentieth day of January shall lapse and be written off. 49 V. c. 4, s. 13.

Temporary loans to meet failure of revenue from
causes.

14. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may also, from time to time, in case of exigency arising out of failure of the revenue from unforeseen causes, direct the Treasurer to effect any needed temporary loans, chargeable on the Consolidated Revenue Fund, in such manner and form, in such amounts, payable at such periods as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may authorize; but such loans shall not exceed the amount of the deficiencies in the Consolidated Revenue Fund to meet the charges placed thereon by law, and shall not be applied to any other purposes whatever. 49 V. c. 4, s. 14.

board may alter date of returns.

15. The Treasury Board may alter the period at or to which any accountant for public moneys, public officer, corporation or institution, is required to render any account or to make any return, whenever in their opinion the alteration will facilitate the correct preparation of the public accounts or estimates for the financial year, anything in any Act to the contrary notwithstanding. 49 V. c. 4, s. 15.

Audit by deputy heads,
etc.

16. The deputy heads of the several departments, or the officers, clerks or other persons charged with the expenditure of public moneys, shall respectively audit the details of the accounts of the several services in the first instance, and be responsible for the correctness of the audit. 49 V. c. 4, s. 16.

Examination of vouchers.

17. In conducting the examination of the vouchers relating to the appropriation of the grants for the several services sanctioned by the Appropriation Act of the year, or by an Act of the Legislature, the Provincial Auditor shall test the accuracy of the castings and computations of the several items of the vouchers; but if he is satisfied that the accounts bear evidence that the vouchers have been completely checked, examined, and certified as correct in every respect, and that they have been allowed, and passed by the proper departmental officers, he may admit the same as satisfactory: Provided always, that if the Treasurer should desire any vouchers to be examined by the Provincial Auditor in greater detail, the Provincial Auditor shall cause such vouchers to be subjected to such a detailed examination as the Treasurer may think fit to prescribe. 49 V. c. 4, s. 17.

18. The Provincial Auditor shall keep an appropriation ledger, in which shall be entered the several supply grants comprised in the Appropriation Act for the year, against which shall be charged all authorized expenditure out of such appropriations. The Provincial Auditor shall furnish to each Department monthly a statement of the charges entered against the several appropriations belonging to such Department, and shewing the balance at the credit of the appropriation at the close of the month. Whenever an appropriation is exhausted, the Provincial Auditor shall at once notify the Department to which the appropriation belongs. The Provincial Auditor shall not sanction any further payments to be charged to such exhausted appropriation except as hereafter provided. 49 V. c. 4, s. 18.

Appropriation ledger.

19. Should a difference arise between the Provincial Auditor and any Department respecting the appropriation to which an authorized expenditure should be charged, such difference may by the Department be referred to the Treasury Board, and the Board shall determine in what manner and to what appropriation or account such expenditure shall be charged. 49 V. c. 4, s. 19.

Determination of differences as to charges against appropriations.

20. In any case where an appropriation is exhausted and the public interest or the urgent requirements of the public service necessitate further payments in excess of the appropriation, the head of the Department to which the appropriation belongs, or his Deputy, shall transmit to the Provincial Auditor the accounts for which payment is asked, with a special report as to the necessity of payment and the reasons why the appropriation is insufficient. The Provincial Auditor shall submit the accounts and departmental report to the Treasury Board, with such remarks either approving or disapproving of the payment as he may consider necessary. If the Treasury Board approve of the payment of the accounts the Provincial Auditor, upon being notified of such approval, shall authorize the issue of cheques therefor. 49 V. c. 4, s. 20.

Payments in excess of appropriations.

21. The Provincial Auditor shall report to the Treasurer, for the information of the Legislative Assembly, all over expenditures of appropriations as granted by the Supply Bill, citing the recommendation and explanations of the Department and the authority of the Treasury Board. 49 V. c. 4, s. 21.

Report of over expenditure.

Particulars which are to be mentioned in report of Provincial Auditor.

22. In reporting as hereinbefore directed for the information of the Legislative Assembly the result of the examination of the appropriation accounts, the Provincial Auditor shall call attention to every case in which it may appear to him that a grant has been exceeded, or that money received by a Department from other sources than the grants for the year to which the account relates has not been applied or accounted for according to the directions of the Legislature, or that a sum charged against a grant is not supported by proof of payment, or that a payment so charged did not occur within the period of the account, or was for any other reason not properly chargeable against the grant. 49 V. c. 4, s. 22.

Report by Provincial Auditor to Legislative Assembly.

23. If the Treasurer does not, at the time prescribed by this Act, present to the Legislative Assembly any report made by the Provincial Auditor on the appropriation accounts, or any other accounts, the Provincial Auditor shall forthwith present such report. 49 V. c. 4, s. 23.

Accounts which are to be examined by Provincial Auditor.

24. Besides the appropriation accounts of the grants of the Legislature, the Provincial Auditor shall examine and audit, if required to do so by the Treasurer, and in accordance with any regulations that may be prescribed for his guidance in that behalf by the Treasury Board, the following accounts, viz: the accounts of all receipts of revenues forming the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Province; the accounts current with the several banks and financial agents of the Province; the accounts relating to the issue or redemption of loans, and any other public accounts which, though not relating directly to the receipts or expenditure of the Province, the Treasury Board may direct. 49 V. c. 4, s. 24.

Accounts to be submitted to Provincial Auditor.

25. The accounts which, by the last preceding section, the Treasurer is empowered to subject to the examination of the Provincial Auditor, shall be rendered to him by the Departments or officers directed so to do by the Treasurer; and the term "Accountant" when used in this and the following sections of this Act with reference to such accounts, shall be taken to mean the Department or officer that may be so required by the Treasurer to render the same; and every public officer into whose hands public moneys, either in the nature of revenue or fees of office, shall be paid by persons bound by law or regulation to do so, or by subordinate or other officers whose duty it may be to pay such moneys, wholly, or in part, into the account of the Treasurer, or to apply the same to any public service, shall, at such times and in such form as the Treasury Board shall determine, render an account of his receipts and payments to the Provincial Auditor; and it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Executive Council to inform the Provincial Auditor of the appointment of every such officer. 49 V. c. 4, s. 25.

26. In all cases where the Provincial Auditor is required by the Treasurer to examine and audit the accounts of the receipt, expenditure, sale, transfer, or delivery of any securities, stamps, Canadian or other Government stock or annuities, provisions, stores, or other property belonging to the Province, he shall, on the examination of such accounts being completed, transmit a statement thereof, or a report thereon, to the Treasurer, who shall, if he thinks fit, signify his approval of such accounts: and the Provincial Auditor on receipt of such approval shall thereupon transmit to the accountant a certificate in a form to be from time to time determined by the Provincial Auditor, which shall be to the accountant a valid and effectual discharge from so much as he may thereby appear to be discharged from. 49 V. c. 4, s. 26.

27. The Provincial Auditor shall have full power and authority to examine any person on oath or affirmation on any matter pertinent to any account submitted to him for audit: such oath or affirmation may be administered by him to any person whom he may desire to examine. 49 V. c. 4, s. 27.

28. Every accountant, on the termination of his charge as accountant, or in the case of a deceased accountant his representatives, shall forthwith pay over any balance of public money then due to the Crown in respect of such charge to the public officer authorized to receive the same: and in all cases in which it shall appear to the Provincial Auditor that balances of public money have been improperly and unnecessarily retained by an accountant, he shall report the circumstances of such cases to the Treasurer, who shall take such measures as to him may seem expedient for the recovery by legal process, or by other lawful ways and means, of the amount of such balance or balances, together with interest, upon the whole or on such part of such balance or balances, for such period of time, and at such rate as to the Treasurer may appear just and reasonable. 49 V. c. 4, s. 28.

justice requires that the issuing of the letters patent should be stayed, then such quorum of the Commissioners, although not then the regular period of their sitting, may report accordingly to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and the issuing of the letters patent shall be thereupon stayed until the Commissioners again report upon the case, and the Commissioners may rehear the case or let in any new claim and receive or insist upon any new evidence as to them may appear expedient to enable them to do justice in the case, and may thereafter decide and report thereon as if no prior decision and report had been made, and with like effect. R. S. O. 1877, c. 25, s. 23.

Commissioners may rehear the case.

R. S. O. 1877, c. 25, s. 25.

Purchasers of unpatented lands sold for taxes may claim patent before the Commissioners.

27. In case the original nominee of the Crown, or any person through whom any party obtaining letters patent for lands under this Act derived his claim, had before the allowance of the claim, and before the issue of the letters patent, granted any mortgage, incumbrance or lien on the lands, by any instrument by which the same would have been validly granted if the letters patent had issued in favour of the grantor before the date of the instrument, the same may be registered in the office of the Registrar for the Registry Division in which the lands lie, subject to the same conditions, and with the same effect and no other, and shall have the same force and effect, and no other, as if letters patent for the land had, before the execution of the instrument, been issued in favour of such grantor. LICENSES TO CUT TIMBER ON PUBLIC LANDS.

Commissioner of Crown Lands may grant licenses to cut timber on Public Lands.

1.—(1) The Commissioner of Crown Lands, or any officer or agent under him authorized to that effect, may grant licenses to cut timber on the ungranted lands of the Crown, at such rates, and subject to such conditions, regulations and restrictions as may from time to time be established by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, and of which notice may be given in the Ontario Gazette.

Period of license.

Conflicting licenses.

(2) No license shall be so granted for a longer period than twelve months from the date thereof; and if, in consequence of incorrectness of survey, or other error, or cause whatsoever, a license is found to comprise lands included in a license of a prior date, the license last granted shall be void in so far as it interferes with the one previously issued, and the holder or proprietor of the license so rendered void shall have no claim upon the Government for indemnity or compensation by reason of such avoidance. R. S. O. 1877, c. 26, s. 1.

R. S. O. 1877, c. 26, s. 2.

3. Every Government road allowance included in any Crown timber license, heretofore granted, or which may hereafter be granted under section 1 of this Act, shall be deemed and taken to be and to have been ungranted lands of the Crown, within the meaning of said section, and liable as such to be included in the license. R. S. O. 1877, c. 26, s. 3.

4. The licensee or nominee named in any license shall be deemed and taken to have, and to have had, all the rights in respect of every such road allowance, and the trees, timber and lumber thereon, or cut thereon, as were, or by section 2 of this Act, may be conferred upon him in respect of any other Crown lands embraced in such license, and the trees, timber and lumber thereon, or cut thereon, except that he shall not be entitled to take or keep exclusive possession of such road allowance. R. S. O. 1877, c. 26, s. 4.

5. No by-law passed, or to be passed by any Municipal Council for preserving, selling, or otherwise appropriating or disposing of the timber or trees, or any part thereof, on a Government road allowance included in any license, shall be deemed or taken to have had or have any force or effect against such license. 6. In case the council of any township, organized as a separate municipality, or the council of any united townships, have passed, or hereafter pass, a by-law for preserving or selling the timber or trees on the Government road allowances within such township, or united townships, and included in any license, the corporation of such township or united townships shall be entitled to be paid out of the consolidated revenue fund of this Province a sum equal to two per centum of the dues received by Her Majesty for or in respect of the timber or saw-logs which, during the existence of the by-law, were cut within the township, or united townships, under the authority of the license; but no corporation shall be entitled to such percentage of the dues received for timber or saw-logs cut during the times or seasons when timber, or trees on such road allowances were cut or removed, for which cutting or removal the corporation had, before the 15th day of February, 1871, obtained a verdict against such licensee or nominee. 44 V. c. 2, s. 1.

Terms on which Councils may obtain the percentage.

7. No Municipal Corporation shall be entitled to such payment as aforesaid, unless a certified copy of the by-law passed or to be passed as aforesaid, accompanied by an affidavit of the Clerk or Reeve of the Corporation, verifying the copy, and the date of the passing of the by-law, is filed in the Department of Crown Lands at Toronto within six months from the passing of the by-law; and the affidavit may be made or taken before any person or officer who, under sections 42 or 43 of The Public Lands Act, is authorized to take the affidavits in those sections mentioned. Return to be made by persons obtaining licenses.

10. Every person obtaining a license shall, at the expiration thereof, make to the officer or agent granting the same, or to the Commissioner of Crown Lands, a return of the number and kinds of trees cut, and of the quantity and description of sawlogs, or of the number and description of sticks of square timber manufactured and carried away under the license; and the statement shall be sworn to by the holder of the license, or his agent, or by his foreman, before a Justice of the Peace; and any person refusing or neglecting to furnish such statement, or evading or attempting to evade any regulation made by Order in Council, shall be held to have cut without authority, and the timber made shall be dealt with accordingly. R. S. O. 1877, c. 25, s. 9.

Timber liable to payment of dues may be followed until dues are paid.

11.—(1) All timber cut under licenses shall be liable for the payment of the Crown dues thereon, so long as and wheresoever the timber or any part of it may be found in Ontario, whether in the original logs, or manufactured into deals, boards or other stuff; and all officers or agents entrusted with the collection of such dues may follow all timber and seize and detain the same wherever it is found until the dues are paid or secured.

Timber removed into Quebec.

(2) Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to repeal the provisions of section 4 of chapter 23 of the Consolidated Statutes of Canada, as regards timber removed into the Province of Quebec. R. S. O. 1877, c. 26, s. 10

12. Bonds or promissory notes taken for the Crown dues either before or after the cutting of the timber, as collateral security, or to facilitate collection, shall not in any way affect the lien of the Crown on the timber, but the lien shall subsist until the dues are actually discharged. R. S.O. 1877, c. 26, s. 11.

The giving of bonds or notes not to affect the lien on the timber.

13. If timber so seized and detained for non-payment of Crown dues remains more than two months in the custody of the agent or person appointed to guard the same, without the dues and expenses being paid, the Commissioner of Crown Lands, with the previous special sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, may order a sale of the timber to be made after sufficient notice; and the balance of the proceeds of the sale, after retaining the amount of dues and costs incurred, shall be handed over to the owner or claimant of the timber. R. S. O. 1877, c. 26, s. 12.

Sale of timber seized for non-payment of dues.

LIABILITY OF PERSONS CUTTING WITHOUT A LICENSE.

14.—(1) If any person without authority cuts or employs or induces any other person to cut, or assists in cutting timber of any kind on the Crown, Clergy, School or other Public Lands, or removes or carries away, or employs or induces or assists any other person to remove or carry away, merchantable timber of any kind, so cut from the Public Lands aforesaid, he shall not acquire any right to the timber so cut, or any claim to any remuneration for cutting, preparing the same for market, or conveying the same to or towards market.

Penalty on persons cutting timber without license, etc.

(2) When the timber or saw logs made has or have been removed by any person out of the reach of the officers of the Crown Lands Department, or it is otherwise found impossible to seize the same, such person shall in addition to the loss of his labour and disbursements, forfeit a sum of $3 for each tree (rafting stuff excepted) which he is proved to have cut or caused to be cut or carried away.

If the timber has been removed, etc.

(3) Such sum shall be recoverable with costs, at the suit and in the name of the Commissioner of Crown Lands, or resident agent, in any Court having jurisdiction in civil matters to the amount of the penalty.

By whom penalty recoverable.

(4) In such cases it shall be incumbent on the party charged to prove his authority to cut; and the averment of the party seizing or prosecuting that he is duly employed, under the authority of this Act, shall be sufficient proof thereof, unless the defendant proves the contrary. R. S. O. 1877, c. 26, s. 13.

Burden of proof.

15. Where satisfactory information, supported by affidavit made before a Justice of the Peace or before any other competent party, is received by the Commissioner of Crown Lands, or other officer or agent of the Crown Lands Department, that any timber or quantity of timber has been cut without authority on Crown, Clergy, School or other Public Lands, and describing where the timber can be found, the Commissioner, officer or agent, or any one of them, may seize or cause to be seized in Her Majesty's name, the timber so reported to be cut without authority, wherever it is found, and place the same under proper custody, until a decision can be had in the matter from competent authority. R. S. O. 1877, c. 26, s. 14.

Timber alleged to be unlawfully cut may be seized on a sufficient affidavit, etc.

As to timber so cut and mixed up with other timber.

16. Where the timber so reported to have been cut without authority on the Public Lands, has been made up with other timber into a crib, dam or raft, or in any other manner has been so mixed up at the mills or elsewhere, as to render it impossible or very difficult to distinguish the timber so cut on Public Lands without license from other timber with which it is mixed up, the whole of the timber so mixed shall be held to have been cut without authority on Public Lands, and shall be liable to seizure and forfeiture accordingly, until satisfactorily separated by the holder. R. S. O. 1877, c. 26, s. 15.

SEIZURE OF TIMBER, &C.

Seizing officer may command assistance.

17. Any officer or person seizing timber, in the discharge of his duty under this Act, may in the name of the Crown call in any assistance necessary for securing and protecting the timber so seized. R. S. O. 1877, c. 26, s. 16.

Burden of proof that dues have been paid.

18. Whenever timber is seized for non-payment of Crown dues, or for any other cause of forfeiture, or any prosecution is brought for any penalty or forfeiture under this Act, and a question arises whether the said dues have been paid on the timber, or whether the timber was cut on other than the Public Lands aforesaid, the burden of proving payment, or on what land the timber was cut, shall lie on the owner or claimant of the timber and not on the officer, who seizes the same, or the party bringing the prosecution. R. S. O. 1877, c. 26, s. 17.

Timber seized to be condemned, if not claimed within one month.

19. All timber seized under this Act shall be deemed to be condemned, unless the person from whom it was seized, or the owner thereof, within one month from the day of the seizure, gives notice to the seizing officer or nearest officer or agent of the Crown Lands Office, that he claims or intends to claim the same; failing notice, the officer or agent seizing shall report the circumstances to the Commissioner of Crown Lands, who may order the sale of the said timber, by the officer or agent, after a notice on the spot of at least thirty days. (2) In any case wherein, after the drainage works have been fully made and completed, the same have not been continued into any other Municipality than that in which the same were commenced, or wherein the lands or roads of any such other Municipality are not benefited by the drainage works, it shall be the duty of the Municipality making the drainage works, to preserve, maintain, and keep in repair the same at the expense of the lots, parts of lots, and roads, as the case may be, as agreed upon and shewn in the assessment roll when finally passed. 36. In case the Council of the Municipality shall have omitted to file with the Registrar, or with the Commissioner of Public Works, a duplicate of the assessment roll within the time specified in the preceding section of this Act the omission shall not be held in any way to invalidate the assessment, but the council shall forthwith, as soon as their attention is called to the omission, file the duplicate or duplicates in accordance with the provisions of the said section. 44 V. c. 3, s. 12.

37. No assessment roll prepared under this Act shall be affected by any irregularity or informality in the appointment of the assessors who prepared the same; but every assessment roll deposited with the Registrar or Registrars of the county or counties, riding or ridings, in which the lands are situate, in accordance with the requirements of section 35, shall be good, valid and effectual, notwithstanding any irregularity therein, or in the manner in which the same was prepared: Provided nothing herein contained shall prevent any roll being corrected in accordance with the succeeding four sections. 45 V. c. 26, s. 18 (1).

Assessment roll not affected by irregularity in appointment of assessors.

38. If, after the assessment roll has been deposited with the Registrar or the Commissioner of Public Works, it is found that through mistake, inadvertence, or otherwise, the amounts set opposite the several parcels or lots of land and roads do not in the aggregate amount to the sum which should have been charged in respect of the drainage or other works, or exceed the same, the Judge of the county court of the county may, upon the application of the Commissioner of Public Works, or of any municipal council interested, cause to be produced before him the several copies of the assessment roll, and shall correct the errors therein, by striking out any incorrect amounts and inserting in their stead, in different coloured ink, the correct amounts. 44 V. c. 3, s. 6.

39. The amounts so settled by the Judge shall thereafter be substituted for the amounts named in the assessment roll. 44 V. c. 3, s. 7.

Corrected amounts to be substituted.

40. If the error is of such a nature that it can be corrected by making an indorsement that all the amounts in the roll, or any particular class thereof, should be increased or decreased in a uniform proportion, the Judge may, instead of altering all the figures, write upon the face of the roll an order directing such increase or decrease, and the amounts shall thereupon be deemed to be increased or decreased in accordance with the order. 44 V. c. 3, s. 8.

Judge may in certain cases order a general increase or decrease of amounts in the roll.

41. The Judge, upon the said application, shall have authority to take evidence under oath, and shall, where he considers it necessary, cause notice to be given to any of the persons whose assessments it is proposed to increase, but when the question to be discussed affects a number of persons it shall not be necessary to direct more than one of such class of persons to be notified; and where, in the opinion of the Judge, the council sufficiently represents the interest of all the persons assessed, or the interest of a particular class, he need not cause any person, or any person of such class to be notified. 44 V. c. 3, s. 9.

Collection of rent-charge.

44. Every rent-charge which shall have become charged on land by virtue of this Act, shall, except as hereinafter provided, be entered by the Clerk of the Municipality in which the said land is locally situate, in a column of the Collector's roll, to be headed "Charge under Drainage Act," and shall be collected and be recoverable by the Council of the said Municipality, by the same means and in the like manner in all respects as municipal rates and taxes are collected and recoverable under The Assessment Act; and the amount thereof shall be remitted by the local Treasurer to the Treasurer of the Province, within the space of one month after the same has become exigible, with interest at the rate of seven per centum during the non-payment. hereby appointed to be remitted by the local Treasurer to the Treasurer of the Province shall be the first charge upon all the funds of the Municipality, for whatever purpose, or under whatever by-law they may have been raised. R. S. O. 1877, c. 33, s. 38.

46. No Treasurer or other officer of the Municipality shall pay any sum whatsoever, except for the ordinary current disbursements and salaries of clerks and other employees of such Municipality, out of any funds of the Municipality in his hands, until the sum then payable by the municipal Treasurer to the Treasurer of the Province, in respect of the rent-charge, has been paid to him; and if the municipal Treasurer or municipal officer pays any sum out of the funds of his Municipality except as aforesaid, contrary to the provisions hereinbefore made, in addition to any criminal liability which he may thereby incur, he shall be liable to the Treasurer of the Province for every sum so paid as for money received by him for the Crown; and any Reeve or Councillor wilfully or negligently omitting to see the foregoing provisions carried into effect, shall also be personally and individually liable to the Treasurer of the Province, for the full amount of the said rent-charge, which may be recovered with costs by the Treasurer of the Province in an action as for money had and received for Her Majesty's behoof. Provision where assessment roll not revised or instalment omitted from roll.

48. Where it appears to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council that it would be inexpedient to levy in one year the full amount of the arrears, he may direct that the same, with interest duly compounded at five per centum per annum, in accordance with the rules for calculating annuities, should be spread over the whole or part of the term of twenty-two years then unexpired, or that the commencement of the term should be postponed so that the period of twenty-two years shall be computed from the first day of January in some year subsequent to the day from which it would be computed under section 43 of this Act. 44 V. c. 3, s. 3.

Lieutenant-Governor in Council may postpone payment of arrears.

49. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall thereupon, by the same order, or by a subsequent order, state the proportion in which each item in the assessment roll shall be increased, and the number of years for which the increase shall take

53. The owner of a parcel or lot assessed for drainage works may, within one month from the time that the assessment roll has been finally revised, discharge his parcel or lot from the rent-charge, by paying to the Treasurer of the Municipality the amount assessed against such parcel or lot; and thereafter, in case all rents placed upon the collector's roll have been duly paid, may discharge the same by paying to the Treasurer the amount of the assessment less two forty-fifths thereof if one year's rent has been paid, and less four forty-fifths thereof if the rent for two years has been paid, and in like manner deducting from the amount of the assessment two forty-fifths thereof for each year's rent that has been paid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 33, s. 41.

Certificate of

54. Upon receiving payment of the amount required in order to discharge any parcel or lot, the Treasurer shall make out in duplicate a certificate (to which the Clerk shall affix the seal of the Municipality) to the effect or in the form following:

60. If a dispute or difference arises between persons interested or claiming to be interested in land or water to be drained or improved in pursuance of this Act, touching and concerning any boundaries, or other rights or interests which the said persons, or any of them, have or claim to have in or over such land or water, or touching any other matter relating thereto, it shall be lawful for the Assessors, as well by the examination of witnesses upon oath as by all other proper and sufficient evidence, to examine into, hear and determine the same, and the determination shall be binding and conclusive upon all persons for the purposes of this Act, but not further or otherwise. scribed, being three in number for each Municipality, or the Official Arbitrators, or the persons appointed by the Commissioner of Public Works, as the case may be, shall act in conjunction in making the assessment throughout each and all of such Municipalities, and the assessment shall be made in the same manner and with the same formalities as are herein prescribed in the case of a single Municipality. 64. The Judge shall, upon receiving the assessment roll, forthwith publish it in manner heretofore provided in regard to a single Municipality, together with a notice that he will, at such time, being not earlier than twenty nor later than thirty days from the day on which the assessment roll was first published and at such place as he may appoint, hear and determine all matters in dispute in regard to the assessment, and his decision thereon shall be absolute and final, and the Judge shall in all such matters have the powers and duties mentioned in section 19 of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 33, s. 52.

65. The Judge shall not be liable either personally or officially, for the cost of publication, but shall be considered as acting therein as the duly authorized agent of the Municipalities interested, which alone shall be liable for the cost, in the proportion to be settled by the Judge, based upon the proportional amount assessed against each Municipality. R. S. O. 1877, c. 33, s. 53.

Cost of publication.

66. Where, in the case of two or more Municipalities which will jointly participate in the benefit of drainage works, an award for damages has been made under section 61, but the Assessors for the Municipalities are unable to agree upon a general assessment throughout each and all the Municipalities, then the three Assessors for any single Municipality may jointly make a separate assessment roll for all the Municipalities, an attested copy of which shall be deposited with the County Judge, and the said Judge, at such time and place as he may appoint, shall hear and determine all differences between the Assessors as to the assessment, whether as regards the total amount thereof, or as regards the mode in which the same is to be apportioned between the several Municipalities and the lands therein, and the decision of the said Judge on all such matters shall be final and binding upon the Municipalities interested. removed by certiorari in certain cases.

79. In case the debt or damages claimed in an action brought in a Division Court amounts to $40 and upwards, and in case it appears to any of the Judges of the High Court that the case is a fit one to be tried in the High Court, and in case a Judge thereof grants leave for that purpose, the action may by writ of certiorari be removed from the Division Court into the High Court upon such terms as to payment of costs or other terms as the Judge making the order thinks fit. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 61.

Court where action may be tried to have full power.

In what Court actions may be enter-

81. Any action cognizable in a Division Court may be entered and tried in the court holden for the division in which the cause of action arose or in which the defendant or any one of several defendants resides or carries on business at the time the action is brought, notwithstanding that the defendant at such time resides in a county or division different from the one in which the cause of action arose. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 62.

82.—(1) Such action may be entered and tried and determined in the court the place of sitting whereof is the nearest to the residence of the defendant, and the action may be entered, tried and determined irrespective of the place where the cause of action arose, and notwithstanding that the defendant at the time resides in a county or division other than the county or division in which the Division Court is situate, and the action entered.

Actions may be brought and tried in the Court nearest to the defendant's residence.

(2) It shall be sufficient if the summons in such case be served by a bailiff of the court out of which it issues, in the manner provided in section 96 of this Act; and upon judgment recovered in any such action a writ of fiery facias against the goods and chattels of the defendant, and all other writs, process and proceedings to enforce the payment of the judgment, may be issued to the bailiff of the court, and be executed and enforced by him in the county in which the defendant resides, as well as in the county in which the judgment was recovered. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 63.

Service of summons in such cases.

Execution.

83. In case a person desires to bring an action in a division other than as in the next preceding two sections mentioned, a County Judge may by special order authorize an action to be entered and tried in the court of any division in his county adjacent to the division in which the defendant or one of several defendants resides, whether such defendant resides in the county of the Judge granting the order or in an adjoining county. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 64.

When actions may be brought in other than the regular Divisions.

84. In every case where the defendant is a corporation not having its head office in the Province and the cause of action arose partly in one Division and partly in another, the plaintiff may bring his action in either Division. 50 V. c. 8, Sched.

Where defendant is a corporation the head office of which is not in Province.

85. Where the debt or money payable exceeds $100, and is by the contract of the parties made payable at a place out of the Province of Ontario, the action may be brought thereon in any Division Court, subject, however, to the place of trial being changed upon the application of one or more of the defendants as provided by the next succeeding section. 43 V. c. 8, s. 9.

Where money made payable out of the Province.

86.—(1) Where the debt or money payable exceeds $100, and is made payable by the contract of the parties at any place named therein, the action may be brought thereon in the court holden for the division in which the place of payment is situate, subject, however, to the place of trial being changed to another division in which the court holden therein has jurisdiction in the particular case.

(2) To procure such change an order to that effect is to be obtained by the defendant from the Judge of the county in which the action is brought.

(3) The application for the order is to be made within eight days from the day on which the defendant who makes the application was served with the summons, where the service is required to be ten days before the return; or within twelve days after the day of such service, where the service is required to be fifteen days or more before the return.

(4) The application is to be on an affidavit that the applicant intends to defend the action, that he has a good defence upon the merits, that the cause of action did not wholly arise in the division in which the action is brought, and that the witnesses for the defence, or some of them, reside within the division in which the defendants, or one of them, resided or carried on business at the time the action was brought, and that the application is not made for the purpose of delay; the date of the then next two sittings of the court to which he seeks to have the cause transferred is also to be shewn.

(5) The affidavit must be made by a defendant, or his solicitor or agent in case satisfactory reasons are given why the affidavit is not made by a defendant.

(6) The order shall direct at what sittings of the court the action shall be tried, subject to all rights of postponement as in other cases, and shall be attached to the summons and other proceedings in the action by the clerk, who shall forthwith transmit the same to the clerk of the court in which the action is by such order directed to be tried, and shall enter a minute thereof in his procedure book.

(7) Upon receipt of the order and other papers by the clerk of such last mentioned court, he shall enter the action and proceedings in his procedure book.

(8) All the papers and proceedings in the cause thereafter, shall be entitled and had and carried on as though the action had originally been entered in the said last mentioned court.

(9) It shall be the duty of the defendant obtaining the order forthwith to serve, or cause to be served, a copy of the same upon the plaintiff or his agent in the same manner as summonses are required to be served under this Act. 43 V. c. 8. s. 8.

87. If by mistake or inadvertence an action shall be entered in the wrong Division Court which might properly have been entered in some other Division Court of the same or any other county, the cause shall not abate as for want of jurisdiction, but on such terms as the Judge shall order, all the papers and proceedings in the cause may be transferred to any Division Court having jurisdiction in the premises, and shall become proceedings thereof as though the cause were at first properly entered therein, and the same shall be continued and carried on to the conclusion thereof as though the action had originally been entered in the said last mentioned court. 43 V. c. 8, s. 11.

When action entered in wrong court by mistake.

88. Every clerk or bailiff may sue and be sued for any debt due to or by him, as the case may be, separately or jointly with another person in the court of any next adjoining division in the same county, in the same manner, to all intents and purposes, as if the cause of action had arisen within such next adjoining division, or the defendant was resident therein, and no clerk or bailiff shall bring any action in the Division Court of which he is clerk or bailiff. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 65.

Clerks and bailiffs may sue and be sued in adjoining divisions.

89. Notwithstanding any thing in this Act contained, a clerk or bailiff of a Division Court may be sued in the court of an adjoining county, the place of sitting whereof is nearest to the residence of the defendant without the county in which he holds his office as clerk or bailiff; and upon a transcript of a judgment which may be recovered against any clerk or bailiff in such action being sent to and received by the clerk of the court of any division adjoining the division for which the defendant was or is clerk or bailiff in the county in which the last named division is situate, with a certificate of the amount due on such judgment, as provided by section 217 of this Act, such proceedings for enforcing and collecting the judgment by way of execution and otherwise may be had and taken in the Division Court to which the transcript has been so sent by the officers thereof as may be had or taken for the like purpose upon a judgment regularly recovered in any Division Court. 43 V. c. 8, s. 15.

Place of trial in actions against clerk or bailiff.

Enforcing judgment.

90. Any action, by or against a Judge or Junior Judge of a County Court, which is within the competence of a Division Court, may be brought in a Division Court of any county adjoining that in which the Judge or Junior Judge resides: and any action by or against a Stipendiary Magistrate, if the same is within the jurisdiction of any Division Court of his district, may be brought in any Division Court of any adjoining county or district. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 66.

Action against County Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate.

Trial may by consent be in any division.

92. The clerk of any Division Court shall, when required, forward all summonses to the clerk of any other Division Court for service, and the clerk of any Division Court shall receive any summonses sent to him by any other Division Court clerk for service, and he shall hand the same to the bailiff for service, and when returned shall receive the same from the bailiff and return them to the clerk from whom he received them, and every clerk shall enter all such proceedings in a book to be by him kept for that purpose. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 67.

94.—(1) The plaintiff shall enter with the clerk a copy (and, if necessary, copies) of his account, claim or demand in writing in detail (and in cases of tort, particulars of his demand) and each copy shall be numbered according to the order in which the copies are entered, and thereupon a summons shall be issued, bearing the number of the account, claim or demand on the margin thereof, and corresponding in substance with such form as may be prescribed by the General Rules or Orders relating to Division Courts from time to time in force, according to the nature of the account, claim or demand, and on the trial of the cause no evidence shall be given by the plaintiff of any cause of action except such as is contained in the account, claim or demand so entered. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 68.

(2) In any action brought to recover a sum of money due on a promissory note, the note shall be filed with the clerk before judgment, unless otherwise ordered, or unless the loss of the note be shewn, or that it cannot for some other satisfactory reason be produced. 49 V. c. 15, s. 7.

Plaintiff to furnish particulars of claim to the Clerk for service.

95. The plaintiff shall furnish the clerk with the particulars of his claim or demand, and the clerk shall annex the plaintiff's particulars to the summons, and he shall furnish copies thereof, to the proper person to serve the same. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 69.

96. The summons, with a copy of the account or of the particulars of the claim or demand attached, shall be served ten days at least before the return day thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 70.

97. In case none of the defendants reside in the county in which the action is brought, but one of them resides in an adjoining county, the summons shall be served fifteen days, and in case none of the defendants reside in the county within which the action is brought, or in an adjoining county, the summons shall be served twenty days at least before the return day thereof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 71.

98. There shall be indorsed upon every summons a notice informing the defendant that in any case in which an order may be made changing the place of trial, application must be made to the Judge within eight days after the day of service thereof (where the service is required to be ten days before the return), or within twelve days after the day of such service (where the service is required to be fifteen days or more before the return). 43 V. c. 8, s. 13.

Indorsement
upon summons.

99. In case the amount of the account, claim or demand exceeds $8, the service shall be personal on the defendant, and in case the amount does not exceed $8, the service may be on the defendant, his wife, or servant, or some grown person being an inmate of the defendant's dwelling-house, or usual place of abode, trading or dealing. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 72.

When service to be personal or otherwise.

General Provisions.

100. Where it is made to appear to the Judge upon affidavit that reasonable efforts have been made to effect personal service of the summons upon the defendant, primary debtor or garnishee, and either that the summons has come to the knowledge of the defendant, primary debtor or garnishee, or that he wilfully evades service of the same, or has absconded, the Judge may, by order, grant leave to the plaintiff to serve the writ in such manner, at such place, or upon such person for the defendant, primary debtor or garnishee, as to him may seem proper, and may grant leave to the plaintiff to proceed as if personal service had been effected, subject to such conditions as the Judge may impose. 43 V. c. 8, s. 62.

Substitutional service.

101.—(1) Every summons or process issued out of a Division Court against a corporation not having its chief place of business within the Province, and all subsequent papers and proceedings in the action, or proceeding in which the summons or process has been issued, may be served on the agent of the corporation whose office or place of business as such agent is either within the division in which the summons or process issued, or is nearest thereto.

Service of process, etc., on corporations.

(2) For the purposes of this section the word "agent" shall be held to include,

(a) In the case of a railway company a station-master having charge of a station belonging to the railway company;

(b) In the case of a telegraph company, a person having charge of a telegraph office belonging to the telegraph company, and

(c) In the case of an express company, a person having charge of an express office belonging to the express company. 48 V. c. 14, s. 11.

Postages.

102. The postages of papers required to be served out of the Division, and sent by mail for service, shall be costs in the cause. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 73.

How process, etc., may be executed at a distance.

103. Where there is no bailiff of the court in which the action is brought, or when the bailiff has been suspended by order of the Judge, or where any summons, execution, subpoena, process or other document, is required to be served or executed elsewhere than in the division in which the action is brought, it may, in the election of the party, be directed to be served and executed by the bailiff of the division in or near to which it is required to be executed, or by such other bailiff or person as the Judge, or clerk issuing the same, orders, and may, for that purpose, be transmitted by post, or otherwise, direct to such bailiff or person, without being sent to or through the clerk. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 74; 49 V. c. 15, s. 8.

Duties of bailiff and liability of sureties.

104. In cases mentioned in the last preceding section it shall be the duty of the bailiff to serve and execute all summonses, executions, subpoenas, process and other documents, and make return thereof with reasonable diligence, and to pay over, on demand, all moneys by him levied or received thereon; and for neglect or default therein, in addition to any other remedy against the bailiff, he and his sureties shall be liable, on their covenant to the parties aggrieved, as if the summonses, executions, subpoenas, process and documents had issued from or related to some action in the court of which he is bailiff. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 75.

Clerk to prepare affidavits of service, etc.

105. The clerk shall prepare affidavits of service of all summonses issued out of his court, or sent to him for service stating how the same were served, the day of service, and the distance the bailiff necessarily travelled to effect service, and the affidavits shall be annexed to or indorsed on the summonses respectively; but the Judge may require the bailiff to be sworn in his presence, and to answer such questions as may be put to him touching any service or mileage. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 76.

Partners.

One of several partners may be sued in certain cases.

106. In case of a debt or demand against two or more persons, partners in trade or otherwise jointly liable, but residing in different divisions, or one or more of whom cannot be found, one or more of such persons may be served with process, and judgment may be obtained and execution issued against the person or persons served, notwithstanding others jointly liable have not been served or sued, reserving always to the person or persons against whom execution issues his or their right to demand contribution from any other person jointly liable with him. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 77.

107. Where judgment has been obtained against such partner, and the Judge certifies that the demand proved was strictly a partnership transaction, the bailiff, in order to satisfy the judgment and costs and charges thereon, may seize and sell the property of the firm, as well as that of the defendants who have been served. R. S. O. c. 1877, c. 47, s. 78.

Bailiff may seize property of firm on certificate of Judge.

Adding Parties.

108. The following provisions shall apply to and in respect of any action brought in a Division Court;

Adding defendants.

1. The Judge may, at any time after action commenced, upon the application of either party, and upon such terms as may appear to him to be just, order that the name of any party who ought to have been joined in the action as a defendant shall be added as a party defendant.

2. If it shall appear to the judge, either before or at the trial of an action, that any party ought to be added as a party defendant in order that the Court may settle all rights and questions involved in the action, the Judge may order such person to be added accordingly.

3. Every person whose name is so added as a defendant shall be served with a copy of the writ of summons, the original summons being first properly amended, and the proceedings against such added defendant, shall be deemed to have been commenced from the date of the order making him a party defendant; but if the application to add a defendant be made at the trial, the Judge may make the order in a summary manner, and may dispense with the service of a copy of the summons upon such defendant, if such defendant or his solicitor consent thereto, upon such terms as to costs or an adjournment of the trial, as to the Judge shall appear just.

Service on parties added.

4. Any two or more persons claiming, or being liable as co-partners may sue, or be sued in the name of the respective firms, if any; where partners are sued in the name of their firm, the summons may be served on one or more of the partners and subject to the provisions in the next two sub-sections contained, such service shall be deemed good service upon the firm; but the affidavit of the service of the summons shall state the name of the partner served. Any party may, at any time before or after judgment, apply to the Judge for an order directing a statement to be furnished of the names of all the persons who are co-partners in any firm which is a party to the action by the firm named.

Service on partners.

5. Where a judgment is against partners in the name of the firm, execution may issue in the manner following:—

Execution against partners.

(a) Against any goods of the partners.

(b) Against the goods of any person who has admitted in the notice of dispute or defence filed that he is or who has been adjudged a partner.

(c) Against any person who has been served as a partner with a copy of the summons and who has failed to appear.

Adding partners as defendants.

6. Upon the trial of an action against a firm, if the plaintiff is desirous of obtaining a judgment against the individual partners, other than the one served with a copy of the summons, and in addition to his judgment against the firm, he may procure the addition of the remaining partners as defendants under sub-sections 1 and 3 of this section, and thereafter proceed to judgment against them in the action as in other cases. 49 V. c. 15, s. 21.

Judgment by Default where Specially Indorsed Summons.

In proceedings
by special summons
final judgment entered by the Clerk,
when claim
not disputed,
etc.

109.—(1) In actions brought in a Division Court for the recovery of any debt or money demand, where the particulars of the plaintiff's claim, with reasonable certainty and detail, are indorsed on or attached to the summons, and a copy of the summons and particulars, with a notice in the form prescribed by the General Rules or Orders relating to Division Courts from time to time in force, annexed to or endorsed on such copy, has been duly served, then, unless the defendant has left with the clerk, within eight days after the day of service (where the service is required to be ten days before the return), or within twelve days after the day of service (where the service is required to be fifteen days or twenty days before the return) a notice to the effect that he disputes the claim, or some part, and how much thereof, final judgment may be entered by the clerk on the return of such summons, or at any time within one month thereafter for the amount claimed in such particulars or so much thereof as has not been disputed, if the plaintiff is content with judgment for such part; and execution may afterwards issue thereon at the instance of the plaintiff.

Summons,
particulars
and affidavit to be filed.

(2) The final judgment so entered may be in the form prescribed by the General Rules or Orders relating to Division Courts from time to time in force, but no such judgment shall be so entered until the summons and particulars, with an affidavit of the due service of both, have been filed.

Judge may set aside judgment.

(3) The Judge may set aside such judgment, and permit the case to be tried, on sufficient grounds shewn, on such terms as to costs and otherwise as he thinks just. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 79.

Judgment by default under s. 109, where final judgment not entered.

110. When due proof is made by affidavit or otherwise of the service of a special summons issued under the preceding section of this Act, and of particulars of the plaintiff's claim or demand as required by the said section, and final judgment has not been entered under the provisions thereof, the Judge may, if the defendant does not, in person or by agent, appear in open court pursuant to and as required by the summons, give judgment against the defendant by default, without requiring proof of the plaintiff's claim or demand, and with the same consequences and effect as if the plaintiff had proved his claim or demand in open court. 48 V. c. 14, s. 3.

111.—(1) Where the defendant in an action within the meaning of section 109 of this Act, has left with the clerk a notice to the effect in the said section provided, the plaintiff in the action may, on an affidavit made by himself, or by any other person who can swear positively to the debt or cause of action, verifying the cause of action, and stating that in his belief there is no defence to the action, serve the defendant with a notice of motion to shew cause before the Judge of the Division Court in which the action is brought, why the plaintiff should not be at liberty to have final judgment entered in his favour by the clerk for the amount of the debt or money demand sought to be recovered in the action, together with interest, if any, and costs. A copy of the affidavit shall accompany the notice of motion. The Judge may thereupon, unless the defendant, by affidavit or otherwise, satisfy the judge that he has a good defence to the action on the merits, or disclose such facts as may be deemed sufficient to entitle him to defend the action, make an order empowering the clerk to sign final judgment accordingly. Motion for udgment.

(2) The application by the plaintiff for leave to have final judgment entered in his favour under the provisions of this section, shall be made on notice returnable not less than two clear days after service.

(3) The defendant may shew cause against the application by offering to bring into court the amount sought to be recovered in the action, or by affidavit. In the affidavit he shall state whether the defence he alleges goes to the whole or to part only, and if so, to what part of the plaintiff's claim. And the Judge may, if he thinks fit, order the defendant to attend and be examined upon oath, or to produce any books or documents, or copies of, or extracts therefrom.

(4) In case it appears that the defence set up by the defendant applies only to a part of the plaintiff's claim, or that any part of his claim is admitted to be due, the plaintiff shall be entitled to have final judgment entered forthwith for such part of his claim as the defence does not apply to or as is admitted to be due, subject to such terms, if any, as to suspending execution, or the payment of any amount levied, or any part thereof, into court by the bailiff, the taxation of costs, or otherwise, as the judge may think fit; and the defendant may be allowed to defend as to the residue of the plaintiff's claim.

(5) If it appears to the Judge that any defendant has a good defence, or ought to be permitted to defend, and that any other defendant has not such defence, and ought not to be permitted to defend, the former may be permitted to defend, and the plaintiff shall be entitled to have final judgment entered against the latter, and may issue execution upon the judgment without prejudice to his right to proceed with his action against the former.

(6) Leave to defend may be given unconditionally, or subject to such terms as to giving security or otherwise, as the Judge may think fit.

(7) Nothing in this section contained shall apply to any action in which the amount of the debt or claim sought to be recovered does not exceed $40. 48 V. c. 14, s. 4 (1-7).

Leave to dispute claim at any time before judgment.

112. The Judge, at any time before judgment actually entered, although the time for giving the notice disputing the plaintiff's claim has expired, may, on sufficient grounds shewn, and on such terms as he thinks just, grant leave to the defendant to dispute the plaintiff's claim, in which case the requisite notice disputing the claim shall immediately be left with the clerk, and also sent to the plaintiff, by prepaid letter through the post or otherwise. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 80.

Withdrawal of defence.

113. A defendant who has filed a notice of defence in any action may, by notice in writing to the clerk, at least six days before the sittings at which the same may be tried, withdraw such defence, and consent that judgment be entered against him for any amount, and the clerk shall immediately notify the plaintiff thereof by mail, and thereupon the plaintiff shall be entitled to have judgment entered by the clerk as by default for such amount, and the costs necessarily incurred. 49 V. c. 15, s. 20.

Trial.

Judge may summarily dispose of cause or non-suit plaintiff.

114. In cases in which a trial is to be had, the defendant shall, on the day named in the summons, either in person or by some person on his behalf, appear in the court to answer, and, on answer being made, the Judge shall, without further pleading or formal joinder of issue, proceed, in a summary way, to try the cause and give judgment; and in case satisfactory proof is not given to the Judge entitling either party to judgment, he may nonsuit the plaintiff; and the plaintiff may, before verdict in jury cases, and before judgment pronounced in other cases, insist on being nonsuited. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 81.

Order in which actions to be tried.

115. The clerk shall place all actions in which the sum sought to be recovered exceeds $100 at the foot of the trial list, and the other actions on the list and business of the court shall be disposed of before entering upon the trial of any of the first mentioned actions, unless the Judge shall, for special reason or reasons, otherwise order : the Judge shall, in such cases, when no agreement not to appeal has been signed and filed, take down the evidence in writing, and shall leave the same with the clerk of the court but in the event of an application for a new trial it shall be forwarded to the Judge by the clerk for the purposes of such application. 43 V. c. 8, s. 5.

Evidence to be taken down.

116. No appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeal if before the court opens, or if without the intervention of the Judge before the commencement of the trial, there shall be filed with the clerk, in any case, an agreement in writing not to appeal, signed by both parties, or their solicitors or agents, and the Judge shall note in his minutes whether such agreement was so filed or not, and the minutes shall be conclusive evidence upon that point. 43 V. c. 8, s. 6.

Parties may agree not to appeal.

117. If on the day named in the summons the defendant does not appear, or sufficiently excuse his absence, or if he neglects to answer, the Judge, on proof of due service of the summons and copy of the plaintiff's account, claim or demand, may proceed to the hearing or trial of the cause on the part of the plaintiff only, and the order, verdict or judgment thereupon shall be final and absolute, and as valid as if both parties had attended ; and, except in tort or trespass, in case of the personal service of the summons and of detailed particulars of the plaintiff's claim, the Judge may, in his discretion, give judgment without further proof. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 82.

Proceedings in case defendant does not appear.

118. In case the Judge thinks it conducive to the ends of justice, he may adjourn the hearing of any cause in order to permit either party to summon witnesses or to produce further proof, or to serve or give any notice necessary to enable the party to enter more fully into his case or defence, or for any other cause which the Judge thinks reasonable, upon such conditions as to the payment of costs and admission of evidence or other equitable terms, as to him seems meet. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 83.

Judge may adjourn hearing of cause.

119. Where an action is being tried by a jury, the Judge, if he thinks it expedient for the interest of justice, may postpone or adjourn the trial for such time and upon such terms, if any, as he shall think fit. 48 V. c. 14, s. 10.

Postponement of trial.

120. Any person may appear at the trial or hearing of any cause, matter or proceeding as agent and advocate for any party to any such cause, matter or proceeding in the Division Courts. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 84.

All persons empowered to act as agents or advocates.

121. The Judge or acting Judge may, wherever in his opinion justice appears to require it, prevent any person from appearing at the trial or hearing of any cause, matter or proceeding in the court, as agent and advocate for any party or parties to any such cause, matter or proceeding. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 85.

Judge may prevent any one from acting as agent or advocate in certain cases.

Tender or Payment of Money into Court.

Plea of tender and payment of money into Court.

122. If the defendant in an action of debt or contract brought against him in a Division Court, desires to plead a tender before action brought, of a sum of money in full satisfaction of the plaintiff's claim, he may do so on filing his plea with the clerk of the court before which he is summoned to appear, at least six days before the day appointed for the trial of the cause, and at the same time paying into court the amount of the money mentioned in the plea; and notice of the plea and payment shall be forthwith communicated by the clerk of the court to the plaintiff by post (on receiving the necessary postage), or by sending the same to his usual place of abode or business. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 86.

Amount to be paid to plaintiff, etc.

123. The said money shall be paid to the plaintiff, less $1 to be paid over to the defendant for his trouble, in case the plaintiff does not further prosecute his action; and all proceedings in the action shall be stayed unless the plaintiff, within three days after the receipt of notice of the payment, signifies in writing to the clerk of the court his intention to proceed for his demand, notwithstanding such plea; and in such case the action shall proceed accordingly. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 87.

Rule as to costs in such cases.

124. If the decision thereon be for the defendant, the plaintiff shall pay the defendant his costs, charges and expenses, to be awarded by the court, and the amount thereof may be paid over to him out of the money so paid in with the said plea, or may be recovered from the plaintiff in the same manner as any other money payable under a judgment of the court; but, if the decision be in favour of the plaintiff, the full amount of the money paid into court as aforesaid shall be applied to the satisfaction of his claim and a judgment may be pronounced against the defendant for the balance due and the costs of suit according to the usual practice of the court in other cases. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 88.

Defendant may pay money into Court.

125. The defendant may at any time, not less than six days before the day appointed for the trial, pay into court such sum as he thinks a full satisfaction for the plaintiff's demand, together with the plaintiff's costs up to the time of such payment. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 89.

Clerk to give notice of payment to plaintiff.

126. The clerk having received the necessary postage, shall forthwith send notice of the payment to the plaintiff by post or otherwise to his usual place of abode or of business, and the sum so paid shall be paid to the plaintiff, and all proceedings in the action stayed, unless within three days after the receipt of the notice the plaintiff signifies in writing to the clerk his intention to proceed for the remainder of the demand claimed, in which case the action shall proceed as if brought originally for such remainder only. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 90.

127. If the plaintiff recovers no further sum in the action than the sum paid into court, the plaintiff shall pay the defendant all costs, charges and expenses incurred by him in the action after such payment, and such costs, charges and expenses shall be duly taxed, and may be recovered by the defendant by the same means as any other sum ordered to be paid by the court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 91.

Evidence of set-off.

130. If the set-off, proved to the satisfaction of the Judge, exceeds the amount shewn to be due to the plaintiff, the plaintiff shall be non-suited or the defendant may elect to have judgment for the excess, provided the excess be an amount within the jurisdiction of the court, and if the excess be greater in amount than the jurisdiction of the court the Judge may adjudicate that an amount of the set-off equal to the amount shewn to be due to the plaintiff be satisfied by the claim but the adjudication shall be no bar to the recovery by the defendant in a subsequent action for the residue of the set-off. 43 V. c. 8, s. 55.

Examination of witness residing at a distance from place of trial.

(2) The person appointed under this and the next preceding section shall have authority to administer an oath to the person to be examined. 49 V. c. 15, s. 19.

147. Except in cases where a new trial is granted, the issue of execution shall not be postponed for more than fifty days from service of the summons without the consent of the party entitled to the same, but in case it at any time appears to the satisfaction of the Judge, by affidavit, affirmation or otherwise, that a defendant is unable, from sickness or other sufficient cause, to pay and discharge the debt or damages recovered against him, or any instalment thereof, ordered to be paid as aforesaid, the Judge may suspend or stay any judgment, order or execution given, made or issued in the action, for such time and on such terms as he thinks fit, and so from time to time until it appears by the like proof that the temporary cause of disability has ceased. Judgment at hearing.

184. At the hearing of the summons, or at any adjourned hearing, on sufficient proof of the amount owing by the garnishee to the primary debtor, and no sufficient cause appearing why it should not be paid and applied in satisfaction of the judgment, the Judge may give judgment against the garnishee (which judgment may be in the form prescribed by the General Rules or Orders from time to time in force relating to Division Courts), for the amount so owing from him, or sufficient thereof to satisfy the judgment; and execution against the garnishee to levy the same, may issue thereon as of course, if due, or when and as it becomes due, or at such later period as the Judge may order, which execution may be according to the form prescribed as aforesaid. R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 132.

R. S. O. 1877, c. 47, s. 134.

187. If in such case the primary debtor has been duly served with a copy of the summons and memorandum, judgment (in the usual form in other cases) may be given against him at the hearing for the primary creditor, for the whole, or such part of the claim as is sufficiently proved, and execution may afterwards issue thereon as in other cases; and whether such judgment is or is not given, the Judge, on sufficient proof of the debt due and owing from the primary debtor, and also of the amount owing to him from the garnishee, may then, or at any adjourned hearing, give judgment against the garnishee (which may be according to the form prescribed as aforesaid) for the amount so found due from the garnishee, to the extent of the amount so found due from the primary debtor, which sum the garnishee shall pay into court, or to the primary creditor, towards the satisfaction of the claim, or in default thereof, execution may issue to levy the same forthwith, or at such later period as the Judge may direct, which execution may be according to the form prescribed as aforesaid. 92. The manner of drafting the panel shall be as follows, that is to say:

1. The Sheriff, or other officer to whom the return of the panel belongs, shall place the ballots promiscuously in a box or urn to be procured by him for that purpose, and shall cause such box or urn to be shaken so as sufficiently to mix the ballots, and he shall then openly draw from the said box or urn indiscriminately one of the said ballots, and declare openly the number of such ballot, whereupon the Clerk of the Peace, or one of the Justices of the Peace, present as aforesaid at such drawing shall, immediately declare aloud the name to which such number is appended in the Jury List from which the panel is drafted ;

2. And thereupon, if such person is exempt from being drafted or serving upon such panel, under section 6 of this Act, or if upon the face of such Jury List it appears that the person whose number has been so drafted had previously been drafted to serve on a panel drafted from such Jury List in obedience to a precept for the return of a general panel for any Sittings of the High Court, General Sessions of the Peace, or County Court, and that such person had actually attended and served upon such panel, and if a sufficient number of names to complete the panel, then in course of being drafted, remain on such Jury List without taking any of those who had been previously drafted from the same list upon any former panel, the Sheriff shall publicly announce the same, and that the name of the person so drafted is, on such account, not inserted in the panel ;

3. If upon examination of such Jury List no such cause appears for omitting the name of such person from the panel then being drafted, the name and addition of the person whose name has been so drafted shall be thereupon written down on a sheet of paper provided for that purpose, and such name shall, by the Sheriff, or other officer, be thereupon marked on the said Jury List, with a reference to the number which will belong to such panel in the Jurors' Book ;

4. The Sheriff shall then proceed in like manner to draft and dispose of other numbers from the said box or urn, until the necessary number for the panel to be so drafted has been completed ;

5. The names so drafted, with the places of residence and additions of the parties, arranged alphabetically, shall then, by such Sheriff, or other officer, be transcribed on another sheet of paper, with a reference to the number of each such name respectively on the Jury List, and each such name shall, by the said Sheriff or other officer, or his Deputy, be thereupon marked upon the said Jury List, with a reference to the number which belongs to such name in the panel in the Jurors' Book ;

6. The panel so alphabetically arranged and numbered, with a short statement of the writ or precept in obedience to which it has been drafted, the date and place of such drafting, and the names of the Sheriff, or other officer or his Deputy, and of the Clerk of the Peace and Justices of the Peace, present at such drafting, or of at least two of them, shall then be fairly entered in the said Jurors' Book, and attested by the signatures of such Sheriff, or other officer or his Deputy, and of the said Clerk of the Peace and the said Justices, or at least two of them. 46 V. c. 7. s. 93.

The panel to be annexed to the writ or precept, and a copy sent to the Registrar of the Common Pleas or to the proper Deputy Clerk of the Crown or Local Registrar.

93. The Sheriff shall, upon his return of the writ of venire facias, or precept, under authority of which the panel has been drafted, annex a panel to the said writ or precept, containing the names, together with the places of abode and additions of the persons so drafted upon such panel, and shall transmit one copy thereof to the office of the Clerk of the Peace of the proper county, and another to the Registrar of the Common Pleas Division of the High Court at Toronto, or to the Deputy Clerk of the Crown, or Local Registrar, as the case may be. 46 V. c. 7, s. 94.

How the Clerk
is to proceed.

103.—(1) Where any issue is brought on to be tried, or damages are to be assessed, the clerk shall, in open court, cause the box or urn to be shaken so as sufficiently to mix the names, and then draw out twelve of the parchments, cards or papers, one after another (causing the box or urn to be shaken after the drawing of each name), and if any of the Jurors whose names are so drawn do not appear or are challenged and set aside, then such further number, until twelve Jurors are drawn, who do appear, and who, after all just causes of challenge allowed, remain as fair and indifferent, and the first twelve Jurors so drawn, appearing and approved as indifferent, their names being noted in the minute book of the Clerk of the Court, shall be sworn or affirmed (as the case may be), and shall be the Jury to try the issue, or to assess the damages.

If another Jury is required before the last drawn have brought in their verdict.

105. Notwithstanding the last preceding two sections, where no objection is made on the part of the Queen, or any other party, the Court may try any issue or assess damages with the Jury previously drawn to try any other issue, or to assess damages without their names being returned to the box or urn, and redrawn, or may order to retire any of the Jurors whom both parties consent to withdraw, or who may be justly challenged or excused by the Court, and may cause another name or other names to be drawn from the box or urn, and shall try the issue or assess the damages with the residue of the original Jury and the new Jurors who appear and are approved as indifferent, and so toties quoties as long as any issue remains to be tried or any damages remain to be assessed. 46 V. c. 7, s. 106.

Several causes may be tried in succession by the same Jury.

the names of the Jurors respectively, note the non-attendance or default of all the Jurors in such panels who have not duly attended and served upon such panels until discharged by the court. 46 V. c. 7, s. 108.

CHALLENGES.

The want of qualification a good ground of challenge.

108. If any person not duly qualified be returned as a Juror for the trial of any issue in any cause, civil or criminal, or on any penal statute, the want of such qualification shall be a good cause of challenge, and he shall be discharged upon such challenge if the Court is satisfied of the fact; but the want of a sufficient property qualification shall not, at the trial of any such case, be a good cause of challenge, either by the Crown or by the party, nor a cause for discharging the Juror upon his own application. 46 V. c. 7, s. 109.

Not the want of freehold.

Not to extend to Special Jurors.

109. Nothing in the preceding section contained shall extend in any wise to a Special Juror. 46 V. c. 7, s. 110.

110. In any civil case, and any case upon a penal statute each party, the plaintiff or plaintiffs, on one side, and the defendant or defendants, on the other, may, on each side, except in the case of Special Jurors, challenge peremptorily, without assigning any cause for the same, any four of the Jurors drawn to serve on the trial of the cause; and the right of challenge hereby conferred shall extend to the Crown, when a party within the meaning of this section; but this shall not be construed to affect the right of the Crown to cause a Juror to stand aside until the panel has been gone through. 46 V. c. 7, s. 111.

That a Juror affirms no cause of challenge.

111. It shall not be a good ground of challenge against a person called upon to serve as a Juror that he belongs to any religious persuasion or denomination allowed by law to affirm instead of taking an oath, but every such person shall be as eligible and liable to serve on all Juries and inquests on his being affirmed, as if he had been sworn in the usual way. 46 V. c. 7, s. 112.

SPECIAL JURIES.

Either party may strike a special Jury.

112. Her Majesty, or any prosecutor, relator, or plaintiff, and any defendant in any case whatever, whether civil or criminal, or on any penal statute, excepting only on indictments for treason or felony, may in any such case triable by a Jury have the issue joined tried by a Special Jury upon suing out the necessary Jury Process for that purpose, and procuring such Special Jury to be struck and duly summoned for the day on which the trial of such case is to be had, and every Jury so struck shall be the Jury returned for the trial of such issue. 46 V. c. 7, s. 113.

113. In the event of a new trial being ordered in any case after the verdict of a Special Jury, the venire facias juratores shall set forth the names of the Jurors who sat on the first trial of such cause, or, in the event of more trials than one having been previously had, the names of all Jurors who sat upon any of such trials, and none of the Jurors who so sat on any such former trial shall be returned or sit as Jurors upon any subsequent trial of the same cause. 46 V. c. 7, s. 114.

The party requiring a Special Jury
may sue out a writ of venire facias juratores.

115. In such case the party, his solicitor or agent suing out the venire facias, shall give notice in writing to the opposite party, his solicitor or agent, that he has sued out a venire facias, in the cause, for the purpose of having a Special Jury struck therein, and of the day and hour appointed by the Sheriff or other officer for striking the same, and the notice shall be served on the opposite party, his solicitor or agent, four full days before the day so appointed, and an affidavit or affirmation of the service, or an admission in writing under the hand of the solicitor or agent on whom it has been served, shall be produced to the Sheriff or other officer, at the time appointed for striking the Special Jury, and in default thereof the Sheriff or other officer shall not proceed to strike the Special Jury upon such appointment. 46 V. c. 7, s. 116.

116. Every Special Jury to be struck under the authority of section 112 of this Act, shall, except as hereinafter provided, consist solely of persons whose names appear on the Roll of Grand Jurors for the High Court or on the Roll of Grand Jurors for the Inferior Courts for the year in which the writ of venire facias is returnable. 46 V. c. 7, s. 117.

3. If, at the time of so reading such name, either party, or his solicitor or agent, objects that the man whose name has been so drawn is in any manner incapacitated from serving on the Jury, and also then and there proves the same to the satisfaction of the Sheriff, the name shall be set aside, and the Sheriff shall instead thereof draw out of the box or urn another number, and shall in like manner refer to the corresponding number in the Grand Jurors' Roll to which the ballot belongs, and read aloud the name to which the number is appended in the Roll, and such name may be in like manner set aside, and other numbers and names be drawn according to the mode of proceeding hereinbefore described for the purpose of supplying names in the places of those set aside until the whole number of forty names not liable to be set aside is completed;

If forty names
cannot be

4. If in any case it so happens that the whole number of forty names cannot be obtained from the Grand Jurors' Rolls, the sheriff shall, in like manner from the Grand Jurors' Rolls in the Jurors' Book of the nearest year for which there is a Jurors' Book or certified copy thereof in the office of the Clerk of the Peace, ballot, in addition to those already taken from the first mentioned Grand Jurors' Rolls, the number of names required to make up the full number of forty names;

118. If any of the parties in the cause neglects to attend in person or by solicitor or agent, at the striking of the Special Jury, the sheriff, upon production of the affidavit, affirmation, or admission of service of the notice as aforesaid, and after waiting at least half an hour for the absent party, shall, if requested by the other party, his solicitor or agent, proceed to strike the Special Jury, and in case of the continued absence of such first mentioned party, the sheriff shall, on his behalf, strike out of the list the twelve names to be, by such party, struck out of the list as aforesaid. 46 V. c. 7, s. 119.

Appointment of a day.

1. The three Elisors, or a majority of them, upon the delivery to them of a copy of the order for the Special Jury and of the venire facias for the return of such jury, shall, at the request of either of the parties in such cause, make an appointment in writing of a day, hour and place for striking the Special Jury as by section 114 of this Act is provided with respect to other Special Juries.

ACTIONS IN THE HIGH COURT.

1. If at any time after the writ has issued in an action in the High Court, and before the action has been entered for trial, it is upon the application of either party made to appear to the satisfaction of the Court or a Judge, that the matters in dispute consist wholly or in part of matters of mere account, which cannot conveniently be tried in the ordinary way, the Court or Judge may, upon such application, decide the matter in a summary manner, or order the matter either wholly or in part, to be referred to the Master in Ordinary of the Supreme Court, or any Local Master, or to the Judge of a County Court, or to a Referee appointed by the parties who consents in writing to accept the reference, upon such terms as to costs and otherwise as the Court or Judge thinks reasonable; and the decision or order of the Court or Judge, as soon as given or made, or the report or certificate of such Master, County Judge or other Referee, when confirmed as hereinafter provided, may be enforced by the same process as the finding of a jury upon the matter referred. JURISDICTION, s. 2.	PROTECTION OF PROPERTY, ss. 10-16.
INQUISITION BY COMMISSION, ss. 3, 4.	APPEAL, s. 17.
INQUIRY WITHOUT COMMISSION, ss. 5-8.	COSTS, s. 18.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Interpretation "lunatic." 1. The word "lunatic" in this Act shall include an idiot or other person of unsound mind. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 57.

Jurisdiction over lunatics and their estates. 2. In the case of lunatics and their property and estates the jurisdiction of the High Court shall include that which in England is conferred upon the Lord Chancellor by a Commission from the Crown, under the Sign Manual. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 58.

INQUISITION BY COMMISSION.

Traverse of inquisition of lunacy. 3.—(1) Where a Commission has been issued and an inquisition thereupon returned into Court, by which a person is found lunatic, in case any one entitled to traverse the inquisition desires to do so, he may, within three months from the day of the return and filing of the inquisition, present a petition for that purpose to the Court, and the Court shall hear and determine the petition subject to the following provisions :

(2) In every order giving effect to the petition, the Court shall limit a time not exceeding six months from the date of the order, within which the person desiring to traverse, and all other proper parties, shall proceed to the trial of the traverse ; but the Court may under the special circumstances of any case, verified by affidavit, and upon a petition being presented for that purpose, allow the traverse to be had or tried after the time limited ; and in such special case the Court may make such orders as seem just. Time to be limited.

(3) The trial may be ordered to take place in any Court of Record in Ontario, with the aid of a jury, according to the circumstances of the case and the situation of the parties. May be tried in any Court of Record.
R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 59 (1-3).

(4) The Court may order that the person to traverse, if he is not the party who has been found lunatic, shall, within one month after the date of the order, file, with such officer as the Court may appoint, a bond, with one or more sureties, in favour of the Accountant, or other officer appointed by the Court, and conditioned for all proper parties proceeding to the trial of the traverse within the time limited. The bond before the filing thereof shall be approved of and certified to be sufficient by the Judge of the County Court of the County in which the parties reside, or by one of the Masters of the Supreme Court of Judicature. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 59 (4) ; 50 V. c. 8, Sched. What security the traverser shall give.

(5) Every person who does not present his petition, or who neglects to give the security, or who does not proceed to the trial of the traverse within the times respectively limited therefor, and the heirs, executors and administrators of every such person, and all others claiming through him, shall be absolutely barred of the right of traverse. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 59 (5). When the traverser barred.

4. The Court if dissatisfied with the verdict returned upon a traverse, may order a new trial, or new trials, as in other cases. New trials may be granted.
R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 60.

INQUIRY WITHOUT COMMISSION.

5. Instead of issuing a Commission of Lunacy the High Court may, with or without the aid of a jury (which the Court or a Judge thereof may cause to be empanelled as in other cases) hear evidence and inquire into and determine upon the alleged lunacy, or may send the inquiry to any Court of Record ; but the alleged lunatic shall have a right in such cases to demand that the inquiry be submitted to a jury. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 61. Inquiry as to lunacy. Alleged lunatic may require a jury.

No traverse allowed but new trial may be granted by Court.

6. Where such inquiry is had, no traverse shall be allowed, but the Court, if dissatisfied with the finding of a jury, may, at the instance of any party who would be entitled to traverse an inquisition under commission of lunacy, direct a new trial or new trials from time to time upon application therefor made to the Court within three months from the time the verdict is rendered, or such further time as the Court, under special circumstances, permits, and subject to such directions and upon such conditions as to the Court seem proper, and the Court may order such new trial to be had before the same Court in which the verdict was rendered or before any other Court. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 62.

Alleged lunatic may be examined openly or privately as Judge directs.

7. On every such inquiry the alleged lunatic, if he is within the jurisdiction of the Court, shall be produced, and shall be examined at such times and in such manner either in open Court or privately before the jury retire to consult about their verdict as the presiding Judge may direct, unless the Court ordering the inquiry has, beforehand, by order, dispensed with the examination. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 63.

Declaration of lunacy without commission.

Proceedings in lieu of traverse when no commission issued.

8. The High Court or a Judge thereof may, on sufficient evidence, declare a person a lunatic without the delay or expense of issuing a commission to inquire into the alleged lunacy, except in cases of reasonable doubt; and any person who might traverse an inquisition to the same effect may move against the order containing the declaration, or may appeal therefrom, as the case requires; and the right so to move or appeal shall, as to time, be subject to the same rules as the right to traverse. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 65.

SCOPE OF INQUIRY.

Question to be tried.

9. Every inquiry, under a Commission of Lunacy, or before any Court of Record, shall be confined to the question, whether or not the person who is the subject of inquiry is, at the time of the inquiry, of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself or his affairs, and the verdict rendered by a jury shall, in every case, be returned to the Court, certified by the Judge before whom the inquiry has been had, and shall be final as to the question on the inquiry, unless the same is set aside. R. S. O. 1877, c. 40, s. 64.

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

Interpretation.

1. In this Act the phrase "public newspaper or other periodical publication" shall be held to include any paper containing public news, intelligence, or occurrences, or any remarks or observations therein, printed for sale and published periodically, or in parts or numbers, at intervals not exceeding twenty-six days between the publication of any two such papers, parts or numbers; and also any paper printed in order to be dispersed and made public weekly or oftener, or at intervals not exceeding twenty-six days, and containing only, or principally, advertisements. 45 V. c. 9, s. 2.

2. On the trial of an action for the making or publishing a libel, on the defence of not guilty, the jury sworn to try the issue may give a general verdict of guilty or not guilty upon the whole matter put in issue in the action, and shall not be required or directed by the Court or Judge before whom the action is tried, to find the defendant guilty, merely on the proof of publication by the defendant of the paper charged to be a libel, and of the sense ascribed to the same in the action; but the Court or Judge before whom the trial is had shall, according to the discretion of the Court or Judge, give the opinion and directions of the Court or Judge to the jury on the matter in issue, as in other cases; and the jury may on such issue find a special verdict, if they think fit so to do, and the defendant, if found guilty, may move in arrest of judgment on such ground and in such manner as he might have done before the passing of this Act. R. S. O. 1877, c. 56, s. 1.

3. In actions of libel and slander, the plaintiff may aver that the words or matter complained of were used in a defamatory sense, specifying the defamatory sense without any prefatory averment to shew how the words or matter were used in that sense, and the averment shall be put in issue by the denial of the alleged libel or slander; and where the words or matter set forth, with or without the alleged meaning, shew a cause of action, the statement of claim shall be sufficient. 4. In an action for defamation where the defendant has pleaded not guilty only, or has suffered judgment by default, or judgment has been given against him on demurrer, he may give in evidence, in mitigation of damages, that he made or offered a written or printed apology to the plaintiff for such defamation before the commencement of the action; or in case the action was commenced before there was an opportunity of making or offering such apology, that he did so as soon afterwards as he had an opportunity. R. S. O. 1877, c. 56, s. 3.

Defendant may prove in mitigation that he offered a written apology.

5.—(1) In an action for libel contained in a public newspaper or other periodical publication, the defendant may plead that the libel was inserted in the newspaper or other periodical publication without actual malice and without gross negligence, and that before the commencement of the action, or at the earliest opportunity afterwards, he inserted in the newspaper or other periodical publication a full apology for the libel; or if the newspaper or periodical publication in which the libel appeared be one ordinarily published at intervals exceed-

(2) No such action shall lie unless and until the plaintiff has given to the defendant notice in writing, specifying the statements complained of, such notice to be served in the same manner as a plaintiff's statement of claim is served or by delivering the notice to some grown-up person at the place of business of the defendant. The plaintiff shall recover actual damages only, if it appears on the trial of the action, that the article was published in good faith, and that there was reasonable ground to believe that the same was for the public benefit, and if it did not involve a criminal charge, and if it appears that the publication took place in mistake or misapprehension of the facts, and that a full and fair retraction of any statement therein alleged to be erroneous was published either in the next regular issue of the newspaper, or other periodical publication aforesaid, or in any regular issue thereof published within three days after the receipt of such notice, and was so published in as conspicuous a place and type as was the article complained of,

(a) Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to the case of any libel against any candidate for a public office in this Province, unless the retraction of the charge is made editorially in a conspicuous manner, at least five days before the election. 50 V. c. 9, s. 1.

6. A defendant, upon filing such defence, may pay into Court a sum of money by way of amends for the injury sustained by the publication of the libel, and such payment shall be of the same effect, and available to the same extent and in the same manner, and be subject to the same rules and regulations as to costs, and the form of pleading (except so far as regards the additional facts hereinbefore required to be pleaded by the defendant), as payment of money into Court in other cases; and to such defence the plaintiff may reply generally, denying the whole thereof. (a) But where the alleged libel involves a criminal charge the defendant shall not be entitled to security for costs under this Act, unless he satisfies the Court or Judge that the action is trivial or frivolous, or that the several circumstances which under sub-section 2 of section 5 of this Act entitle the defendant at the trial to have the damages restricted to actual damages appear to exist, except the circumstance that the article complained of involves a criminal charge.

(2) For the purposes of this section the plaintiff or the defendant or their agents may be examined upon oath at any time after the statement of claim has been filed. 50 V. c. 9, s. 4.

10. Every action for libel contained in a public newspaper or other periodical publication, shall be tried in the county where the chief office of such newspaper or periodical is, or in the county wherein the plaintiff resides at the time the action is brought; but upon the application of either party the Court or a Judge may direct the issues to be tried or the damages to be assessed in any other county if it be made to appear to be in the interests of justice, or that it will promote a fair trial, and may impose such terms as to payment of witness fees, and otherwise as may seem proper. 50 V. c. 9, s. 5.
